Spicy and hot, just like you. This olive oil was made with the fire in my soul. I googled a recipe, and it said to warm up chilli oil, butter, and mint and pour that shit over some (gluten-free) pasta. IT WILL BLOW YOUR DANG MIND. Top it with parmesan because we aren't animals and cheese goes with everything.

Honestly, I'm pretty sure this is what heaven smells like. Take some chicken and marinate it in this (and some lemon, pepper, salt, garlic, mustard if ya feeling fancy) and make the juiciest tastiest chicken you ever did taste. Then invite me over for dinner to eat it. KTHANKS.

This just goes with everything. Elevate your tomato soup by drizzling this over the top. Pour it on your eggs to start your day off right. Make your pizza even tastier by brightening it up with this shit. You can't go wrong with basil.
